SIR,
GENERAL SECRETARY
4 DEC 1937

Disposal of Sirkari lands at Mirle in Krishnaraja-nagar Taluk, belonging to Sri Lakshminarasimha Swami Temple at Huggehalli in Chennaraya-patna Taluk.

I have the honor to forward herewith correspondence ending with letter No.R.Dis.119-37 dated 3-8-1937 from the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, on the subject, and to state as follows:-

2. The temple of Sri Laksminarasimhaswami at Huggehalli in Chennarayapatna Taluk, owns 12 Sirkari Survey Nos. in Mirle village in Krishnarajanagar Taluk, measuring 24 acres and 39 guntas and assessed at Rs 201-8-0. Out of this extent, 22 acres and 24 guntas are wet. The annual kandayam including cesses comes to Rs 223-8-0.

3. As there was no adequate income from these lands even to cover the annual kandayam payable to Government, the question of disposing of these lands outright and of investing the proceeds in any interest earning concern had been under consideration from the year 1929 and it was ordered in this office Order No.M1 Dis.52/36-37 dated 31-8-1936 that a provisional sale might be held after wide publicity ~~reserving~~ referring to Government, the right to accept or to reject the highest bid.

4. At the sales conducted by the Sub Division Officer, an aggregate sum of Rs 3,575 has been realised. The Sub Division Officer, who conducted the sale, and the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, recommend the confirmation of the sale, as the bids secured are fair. The Deputy Commissioner, Hassan district, also states that the Dharmadars a e of opinion t at the sales may be confirmed and the proceeds invested under Charitable Dep sit Rules at 4% interest and this is supported by the local officers, and recommends confirmation of the sales.

5. The bids secured are given in the margin and work up to Rs 143 per acre. They seem to be fair considering the present market rate obtaining for lands.

6. I recommend that the sales may kindly be confirmed, the proceeds being ordered to be invested under Charitable Deposit Rules at 4% interest, in favour of the temple.

Mirke in Krishnarajnagar Taluk.
